JOB - TRIED AS GOLD

(Job 23:10)

I. How was Job destroyed?

- A. Satan had accused God of _____ Job to keep him faithful, which said two things about God:
 1. God was not _____ of worship;
 2. Man would only worship God if things always went right for man and if he was _____ well.
- B. Satan then challenged God by saying that Job would _____ God if he lost all that God had given him.
- C. Now Job is caught in the middle of a _____ between God and Satan.
- D. The first round was total destruction and loss of all that Job _____.
- E. The second round was against his _____.

II. How was Job tried in the fire?

- A. As we first noticed, Job lost all of his physical _____.
- B. Job lost his high social _____ in his community.
- C. He was _____ by his family and friends.
- D. He had lost all his _____.
 1. No doubt Job _____ his children deeply (1:5).
 2. They are always listed first among his possessions because they were the most _____ to him
- E. Job had to endure what seemed like _____.
- F. Job had his wife urge him to _____ God and die (2:9).
 1. We do need to remember that _____ had lost all that Job lost.
 2. Not only that, she had to _____ her husband go through all of the physical suffering he was enduring.
 3. Satan was attempting to _____ her to get to Job to do that he was not allowed to do to him.
- G. Job was _____ horribly by his three friends.
 1. These men were so convinced that they were right in their _____ that they would not allow the truth and facts to get in their way.
 2. It is often the case that the person who so insists they are right and so prejudiced against someone else has _____ in his relationship with God.
- H. Job thought God had _____ him and was even trying to kill him.
 1. Satan had done things to Job in such a way as to leave the _____ that God had done them to Job.
 2. Job believed God had given and also taken _____ (1:21).
- I. Job wanted to know why the wicked seemed to _____ in life and the righteous suffer and die young.

III. How did Job come out of this as gold (go to chapter 31)?

- A. This should be of the utmost _____ to us.
- B. Job had long been faithfully _____ God.
- C. Job was a faithful steward of his _____.
 - 1. The pure in _____ will be blessed (Matthew 5:8).
 - 2. The things that come out of the _____ come from the heart, or mind (Matthew 15:18-20).
- D. Job had been a faithful steward of his _____.
- E. Job had always _____ others well.
- F. Job had great faith in the _____ and _____.
- G. No matter what, Job was going to keep his _____ before God.
- H. Really, all that God allowed Satan to do to Job was a _____ to the great faith of Job.
 - 1. He knew Job would come through else God would not have _____ him out to Satan.
 - 2. He knew Job would not _____.
- I. Can that be said of us?

IV. Was Job blessed after his trials?

- A. God _____ Job, but not in the way that he wished.
- B. God challenged Job to face Him and stand up and answer _____ questions.
- C. God never told Job in this discussion why he had suffered, only that God knew and He cared and that was _____ for Job.
- D. God thought so highly of Job that He had the three sorry friends come to Job for _____ on their behalf with God.
 - 1. What is amazing is that Job, despite their treatment of him, _____ went to God on their behalf.
 - 2. This shows the true _____ of Job.
- E. God then blessed Job greatly, _____ his possessions he had lost.
- F. His family and friends _____ to him and gave him tokens of their new found love for him.
