A LOOK BACK AT A LOOK AHEAD
(2 Samuel 7:12-14)

His offspring would have a _____ established.

There are many who want to say this has to be _____ that God mentions here.

Such can't be the case because David was not _____ when Solomon began to reign (1 Kings 1:32-40).

God clearly stated that the kingdom would be established for his offspring when his days were _____ and he was resting with his fathers.

The offspring under consideration here has to be _____.

This fits with what the New Testament _____.

Acts 2:29-30 states that Jesus is the _____ of David.

_____ preached this as well (Acts 13:23).

Jesus knew that He came to build a kingdom (Matthew 16:18-19).

Jesus knew that He came to be _____ of His kingdom (John 18:33-37).

His offspring would build a _____ for God.

2 Kings 25 tells us that the house Solomon built was _____ by the Babylonians.

The house under consideration in this text, according to this verse as well as 2 Samuel 7:16, would be one that lasted _____.

_____ ought to jump immediately to our minds to understand that Jesus is the Builder under consideration.

His offspring would have his _____ established forever.

The truth is, the New Testament shows this has to be a _____ to Jesus (Luke 1:32-33).

This is similar to the prophecies given to _____.

Daniel 2:44.

Daniel 7:13-14.

His offspring would _____ for the sins of man.

There are some that say this can't be talking about Jesus because it would make Him a _____.

Notice Hebrews 1:5: this can be talking about none other than _____.

The fact is, this is a prophecy of the fact that Jesus would be _____ for the sins of man, not that He would be a sinner.

The language of this text is very similar to _____.

Memorial Day Matt Clifton

Memory is an important part of the human experience. God created our minds in such a way that we can store information regarding past events and recall that information in the future. These facts range from the mundane tasks of life, such as brushing our teeth every day because we learned the necessity of doing so in the past, to more profound concepts, such as the sacrifices made by American soldiers throughout history who fought and died to protect others in our nation and world.

On Monday, May 25, our country will remember those valiant soldiers who donned the uniform of service to their fellowman, and gave their lives for freedom, a cause they deemed greater than themselves. We remember their great sacrifices, and acknowledge the biblical precept of laying down our lives for others (John 15:13).

On Sunday, Christians will gather to remember the One who taught us to sacrifice for others. Jesus lived a life of service, spending His time on earth doing good (Acts 10:38), teaching truth (John 6:63; Eph. 4:21), and ultimately giving His perfect life as an atonement for our sins (John 10:18).

There are many memorials man observes throughout his days. But there is none so important as the one commanded by God: the Lord's supper (Matt. 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:23-26). Let us not fail to remember the supreme sacrifice, and let us proclaim His death until He comes

Memorial Day is day that has been set aside by our government to honor those who have given their lives for our country. The freedom we have to assemble here today has been fought for by brave men and women. It has been protected by those who were willing to make the ultimate sacrifice.

The Bible says that we are to give honor to whom honor is due (Romans 13:7). While we are enjoying time with our families tomorrow, let us not forget the ones who died to make that time together with family possible.
