THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN WORSHIP

(1 Timothy 2:9-14)

I. Arguments made for an increased role for women in worship.

- A. The biggest argument made for the expanded role of women in worship is that all the passages that restrict women in worship are dealing with _____ and _____ problems unique to the recipients of the letter.
- B. The next argument that is made is taken from _____.
- C. Another argument that is made is that Phoebe is called a _____ in Romans 16:1.
- D. Another argument made is that God has given us all _____ to use, both male and female, and we should not restrict women from using them.
- E. Some argue that since women were mentioned as having _____ in the first century, they can have a leadership role or teaching role in the worship today.
- F. Still others argue that women are said to have _____ for the Lord or with an apostle or were of note among the apostles.

II. Answers to these arguments.

- A. The first argument mentioned is the _____ by Paul were cultural and for that time period.

1. Paul's argument for the restricted role of women went all the way back to _____ and the entering in of sin into the world.
2. Not only that, but what Paul taught in Corinth, he taught _____.
- B. The argument from Galatians 3:28 has nothing to do with a _____ service.
- C. In dealing with the calling of Phoebe a deaconess, the word is translated _____ in most versions.
1. Also, it is taught that she was over men because she is said to have been a _____ of many and of Paul.
2. Since it is said she helped Paul, it would have to mean that she exercised authority _____ Paul, an apostle!
- D. While arguing that gifts have been given to all people, these false teachers turn to the gifts that God bestowed in the _____ century.
- E. Those women mentioned as prophets in the first century are never mentioned to have used their ability in _____ to God.
- F. People who use Euodia, Syntyche, and Junia are grasping at _____.
1. Paul was in no way saying they had a position of _____ with him or over him. to do such and these two women didn't have that in any way.
2. Dealing with Junia, the Greek text literally has Junian and all the pronouns modifying the name are _____.
